THAT EVERLASTING PUNCH BOWL Editor Tribune:-We are so ant, when ecing the mote in our brother's eye to forget the beam in our own. Most of us are chagrined (at least) at the dislosures recently made public at Wash-ngton concerning our affairs at home, but another insidious foe in the form of the everlasting punch bowl is not only allowed in our midst, but encouraged and centralized by what should be our time and the means to entertain elaborately set the pace, and all the rest follow suit. As it has become a public necessity almost and the evil effects enthrely forgotten or ignored, some of our girls have "served punch" at social functions and they are designated "professional bartenders," which in fact they are, for the punch is often iced champagne and almost always is so strongly charged with liquor as to scarcely deserve any name but wine on top. At such a simple function as the dance by the High school cadets last week the punch was strong enough to take several of the boys off their to take several of the boys off their feet and unfit them for the evening. The boy or girl who has the courage to speak against such a popular custom and to refuse to patronize "the bar" is certainly very rare. There are nice chaperous whose names head the announcements of these parties. That they allow such things and where are the mothers of the girls who so charmingly serve punch at the awell afters. the mothers of the girls who so charmingly serve punch at the swell affairs, that the young man must drink whether he will or no? And where is it all to end? Read the records of crime and its cause, of divorce and the cause, of insanity and its cause, of poverty and its cause, for your answer. Then take the street car for home any evening about 6 o'clock and note the breath of four-fifths of the men who have sorrow and ain, but the social leaders and the society girls and the general public who "condone" the custom are not guiltless. not guiltless. We are prepared to invest your funds so that they will bring you the largest returns compatible with safety. You hold the security. We do the work.
